Nov. 1, 1939.

Miss Helen Newman,
Executive Secretary, American Association of Law Libraries,
The George Washington University Law School,
Washington, D.C.

Dear Miss Newman:-

On Friday, October 27th, the Carolinas Association of Law Librarians, of which I am President, voted to affiliate with the American Association under the new Chapter plan.

Since, as I understand the requirements, it is necessary for the officers of our local group to be members of national Association, I hereby make application for membership, enclosing check for $5.00 to cover yearly dues for an individual membership.

You may credit to Mr. William R. Roalfe, of Duke, both my membership and the affiliation of our group with the national Association, although Miss Lucile Elliott, of the University of North Carolina, has strongly seconded him in both efforts.

Yours truly,

Dillard S. Gardner

Enclosure: Check - $5.00
